SMART FILENAMES (PRO FEATURE)

Every file is named with technical details for a faster workflow:

Brand · Style Tag · Track Number · BPM · Musical Key

Example: LSV_Bossa_001_Nova_108bpm_G4.wav

Sort by filename to organize by style. Use the BPM to sync cuts and transitions.

USAGE GUIDE

PERFECT PAIRINGS

- Morning coffee and journaling → Boutique Bossa (120-125 BPM)
- Study sessions and deep work → Gallery Jazz (94-137 BPM)
- Cooking dinner → Coastal Breeze (94-110 BPM)
- Evening relaxation → Evening Terrace (100-117 BPM)
- Dinner party or hosting → Cocktail Hour (100-115 BPM)
- Real estate walkthroughs → Gallery Jazz + Evening Terrace
- YouTube vlogs and lifestyle content → Boutique Bossa + Coastal Breeze
- Podcast background → Gallery Jazz (low volume)

TIPS FOR CONTENT CREATORS

- Set any track on loop for continuous background ambience
- Use the BPM info in filenames to match your editing pace
- Mix categories for longer playlists — start with Boutique, end with Evening
- Lower the volume so music supports the scene without overpowering narration
- Cocktail Hour tracks work great for fashion and product B-roll

COMPATIBLE WITH:

- Any media player (VLC, Windows Media, iTunes, Spotify Local Files)
- Video editors: DaVinci Resolve, Premiere Pro, Final Cut, CapCut
- Streaming: OBS, Streamlabs, Discord
- Podcast tools: Audacity, GarageBand, Descript
- Virtual tabletops: Foundry VTT, Roll20, Fantasy Grounds
